COMMONWEALTH OF VIRGINIA

STATE CORPORATION COMMISSION

AT RICHMOND, OCTOBER 3, 2001

APPLICATION OF

VIRGINIA ELECTRIC AND POWER

CASE NO. PUE000584

For approval of a Functional Separation Plan
under the Virginia
Electric Utility
Restructuring Act

ORDER GRANTING MOTION

On September 19, 2001, Cogentrix Energy, Inc.
("Cogentrix" or the "Company") filed a Motion for Admission
Pro Hac Vice (the "Motion") with the Commission moving for the admission of John L. Sachs and George D. Cannon in this proceeding through the Company's counsel, Stephanie S. Lim, who is a member of the Virginia State Bar. The motion states, among other things, that Mr. Sachs has practiced finance and energy law for nineteen years, and that he has been duly authorized to practice law in the District of Columbia since 1980. The motion further states that Mr. Cannon has practiced regulatory and energy law since 1996, and that he has been duly authorized and licensed to practice law in the State of New York since 1995, and the District of Columbia since 1996.

Pursuant to Rule 5 VAC 5-20-30 of the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure, an attorney admitted to practice in another jurisdiction, but not licensed in Virginia, may be permitted to appear in a particular proceeding pending before the Commission in association with a member of the Virginia State Bar. The rule further states that the Virginia State Bar member will be counsel of record for every purpose related to the conduct and disposition of the proceeding.

NOW THE COMMISSION, upon consideration of the foregoing, is of the opinion that Cogentrix' Motion for Admission Pro Hac Vice should be granted.

ACCORDINGLY, IT IS ORDERED THAT John L. Sachs and George D. Cannon, in association with Stephanie S. Lim, are admitted Pro Hac Vice for the purposes of this proceeding, and that Stephanie S. Lim shall be counsel of record for every purpose related to the conduct and disposition of this proceeding.
